

Fiancee Visa Services
3525 Del Mar Heights Road
#408
San Diego, CA

October 7, 2008

Dear Sir:

I have reviewed the documents that you have sent. The following are my recommendations, how you can improve the petition so as to allow it to be processed more smoothly and quickly by USCIS. If you have any questions please call or email me at 1-800-806-3210.

1. Binding Clasps

See the two holes at the top of the I-129F form. The best way to send your petition is to use a two hole punch at the top of all pages, sort the documents in a logical order, then bind all together using Acco Brass Fasteners. I have enclosed for you two Fasteners for your use.

2. Cover Letter

A cover letter should be used, which lists all the documents you are sending, and lists them in the same order you have stacked and bound them. I have enclosed for you a sample cover letter. I recommend you stack the documents in the same order as shown on the sample letter.

3. Passport “like” Photos

Acceptability:

I think that both of the photos are NOT acceptable. Hers looks too small, your face is too large. See: attached Photo requirements.

Quantity:

You are required to submit 2 each for you and your fiancée. I could only find 1 each. Also later she may be asked for 2 additional photos at her consular interview, so she should probably arrange to get 4 copies. 2 for use with the I-129F and 2 for use at the consulate.

Attachment:

You can use the large paperclips to affix them. I prefer to put the photos in a Ziploc bag and include it in the bundle that is bound by the Acco fasteners.

4. I-129F -- This needs work. I have attached a marked up copy.

Item #9. The name of the prior Spouse should be her maiden name.

Item #10. It is not needed to describe your birth certificate. What they were looking for there are details of a Naturalization Certificate

Item #14. Shoals is misspelled

Item #15. Fiancees phone number is missing

Item #17. Should be ticked “No”

Item #18. This section is best completed with more details. At minimum you should describe a timeline. “We met online around “DATE”, then corresponded, and met in person at Manila from “Date to Date”

What I recommend is to write in the space for item 18.:

“see attached letter: re: I-129F Part B, Question #18, Has your Fiancee met and seen you?”

Then write, a couple of paragraphs, describing the relationship.
See Sample. I-129F Part B

Item #19. This should include the address and url of HeartofAsiaOnline.com. I normally write the following:

Heart of Asia
HeartofAsiaOnline.com (a fully IMBRA compliant service)
2658 Del Mar Heights Road, #131, Del Mar, CA 92010 USA

Part D.

You alone are the sponsor for this petition. So

- A. It should only show your signature
- B. It should only show your telephone number
- C. It should only show your email address

5. G-325A – [REDACTED] Sponsor

The handwriting is hard to read, especially in the fields regarding your Parents and ex wife. I suggest that you redo this page, and preferably type it. If you have a computer you can type directly to the form then print it out.

Get a copy at <http://www.fianceevisaservices.com/uscisforms.html>

If you wish to retain the handwritten copy, then use White Out to cover any mistakes, or hard to read writing, then neatly copy over. Be sure to make the changes on all Four copies.

Your mothers maiden name? Is it [REDACTED] or [REDACTED] ? Just write the correct one.

Your parents Birthdates are missing. The format should be Date, City, Country. (Note: Country not County so should be USA)

6. [REDACTED] Fiancee Passport

Missing. Each and every page of her passport must be copied and attached to this petition. If she does not have a passport, she should immediately apply for one. You can not apply for the fiancée visa unless she first has a passport.

7. Letters from [REDACTED] Sponsor

Missing. A good idea is to include samples of some letters you wrote, especially those that discuss plans for your future together.

8. Photos of the two of you together:

You should glue them to some blank pages, then bind the pages to the package.

9. Acceptable Documents

G-325A [REDACTED] looks ok

Letters from [REDACTED] – look ok

Birth Certificate: [REDACTED] – looks ok

Birth Certificate: [REDACTED] – looks ok

Hotel Receipts – looks ok

Boarding Pass – looks ok

Divorce Decree: - looks ok

Letter from [REDACTED] confirming desire to marry – looks ok

Letter from [REDACTED] confirming desire to marry – looks ok

10. Not needed for I-129F – too soon

Police Clearance – [REDACTED]

This document should be obtained about 3 months before the consulate interview. She will have to get a new one, nearer the time of the interview.

I-134

This document should be redone, then sent to [REDACTED], close to the time of her interview. The consulate will give her a list of required documents and the I-134 will probably be specified at that time. I note you list two children as wholly dependent on the I-134 but your tax return does not list any dependents. This is an inconsistency you should be prepared to explain or correct.

Tax Return –

Generally a letter from your employer and three W-2's are enough. The Tax return is requested if you are Self Employed. Are you self employed?

Best

Fred Wahl
Matchmaker
Fiancee Visa Services

Ps. Above I have given you enough corrections and suggestions, that if you follow them, I am sure you can clean up the application and submit it successfully yourself.